Recognition of Excellence

This is to acknowledge that Ms. Aashi Niraj Shah, a 10th-grade student of Anand Niketan School, Satellite, Co-founder of Inanna Foundation, has demonstrated exemplary leadership and initiative in organizing and conducting the Breast Cancer Awareness and Screening Camp at Rajkrupa Textiles (India) Pvt. Ltd., conducted on 25/10/2024

Through her dedicated efforts, a total of 50 plus female employees participated in the awareness seminar and underwent screening, contributing significantly to promoting early detection and health awareness. Her commitment to social responsibility, health advocacy, and women's well-being is commendable and reflects her strong sense of service to society.

The Gujarat Chamber of Commerce and Industry's Business Women Committee proudly acknowledges and appreciates her contribution to this noble cause. We recognize her initiative and efforts in making a meaningful impact in spreading awareness about breast cancer and its prevention.

With gratitude and best wishes for her future endeavors.
